Align your business with worthy causes.

Fits into any existing business.

No matter what you sell, this initiative can be seamlessly incorporated. Without conflicting with your existing products and services, it adds to your bottom line. Giving your clients the opportunity to help others, and happily pay to do so. If your products and services don't get repeat sales, the residual commissions earned here, will certainly help improve your cashflow. The goal is to boost your business, while helping us grow too.

Make this your own business.

Don't have a business of your own? Simply get the Business Pack, and then you do. Set yourself up for success, without having to go through the aches and pains of starting from scratch. You can simply ride our wave and help grow this initiative. Using proven tools and resources, guides and tutorials to build your business. Taking your financial future into your own hands, may seem daunting, but entirely possible. Be brave. Be your own boss!

Effective tools & resources.

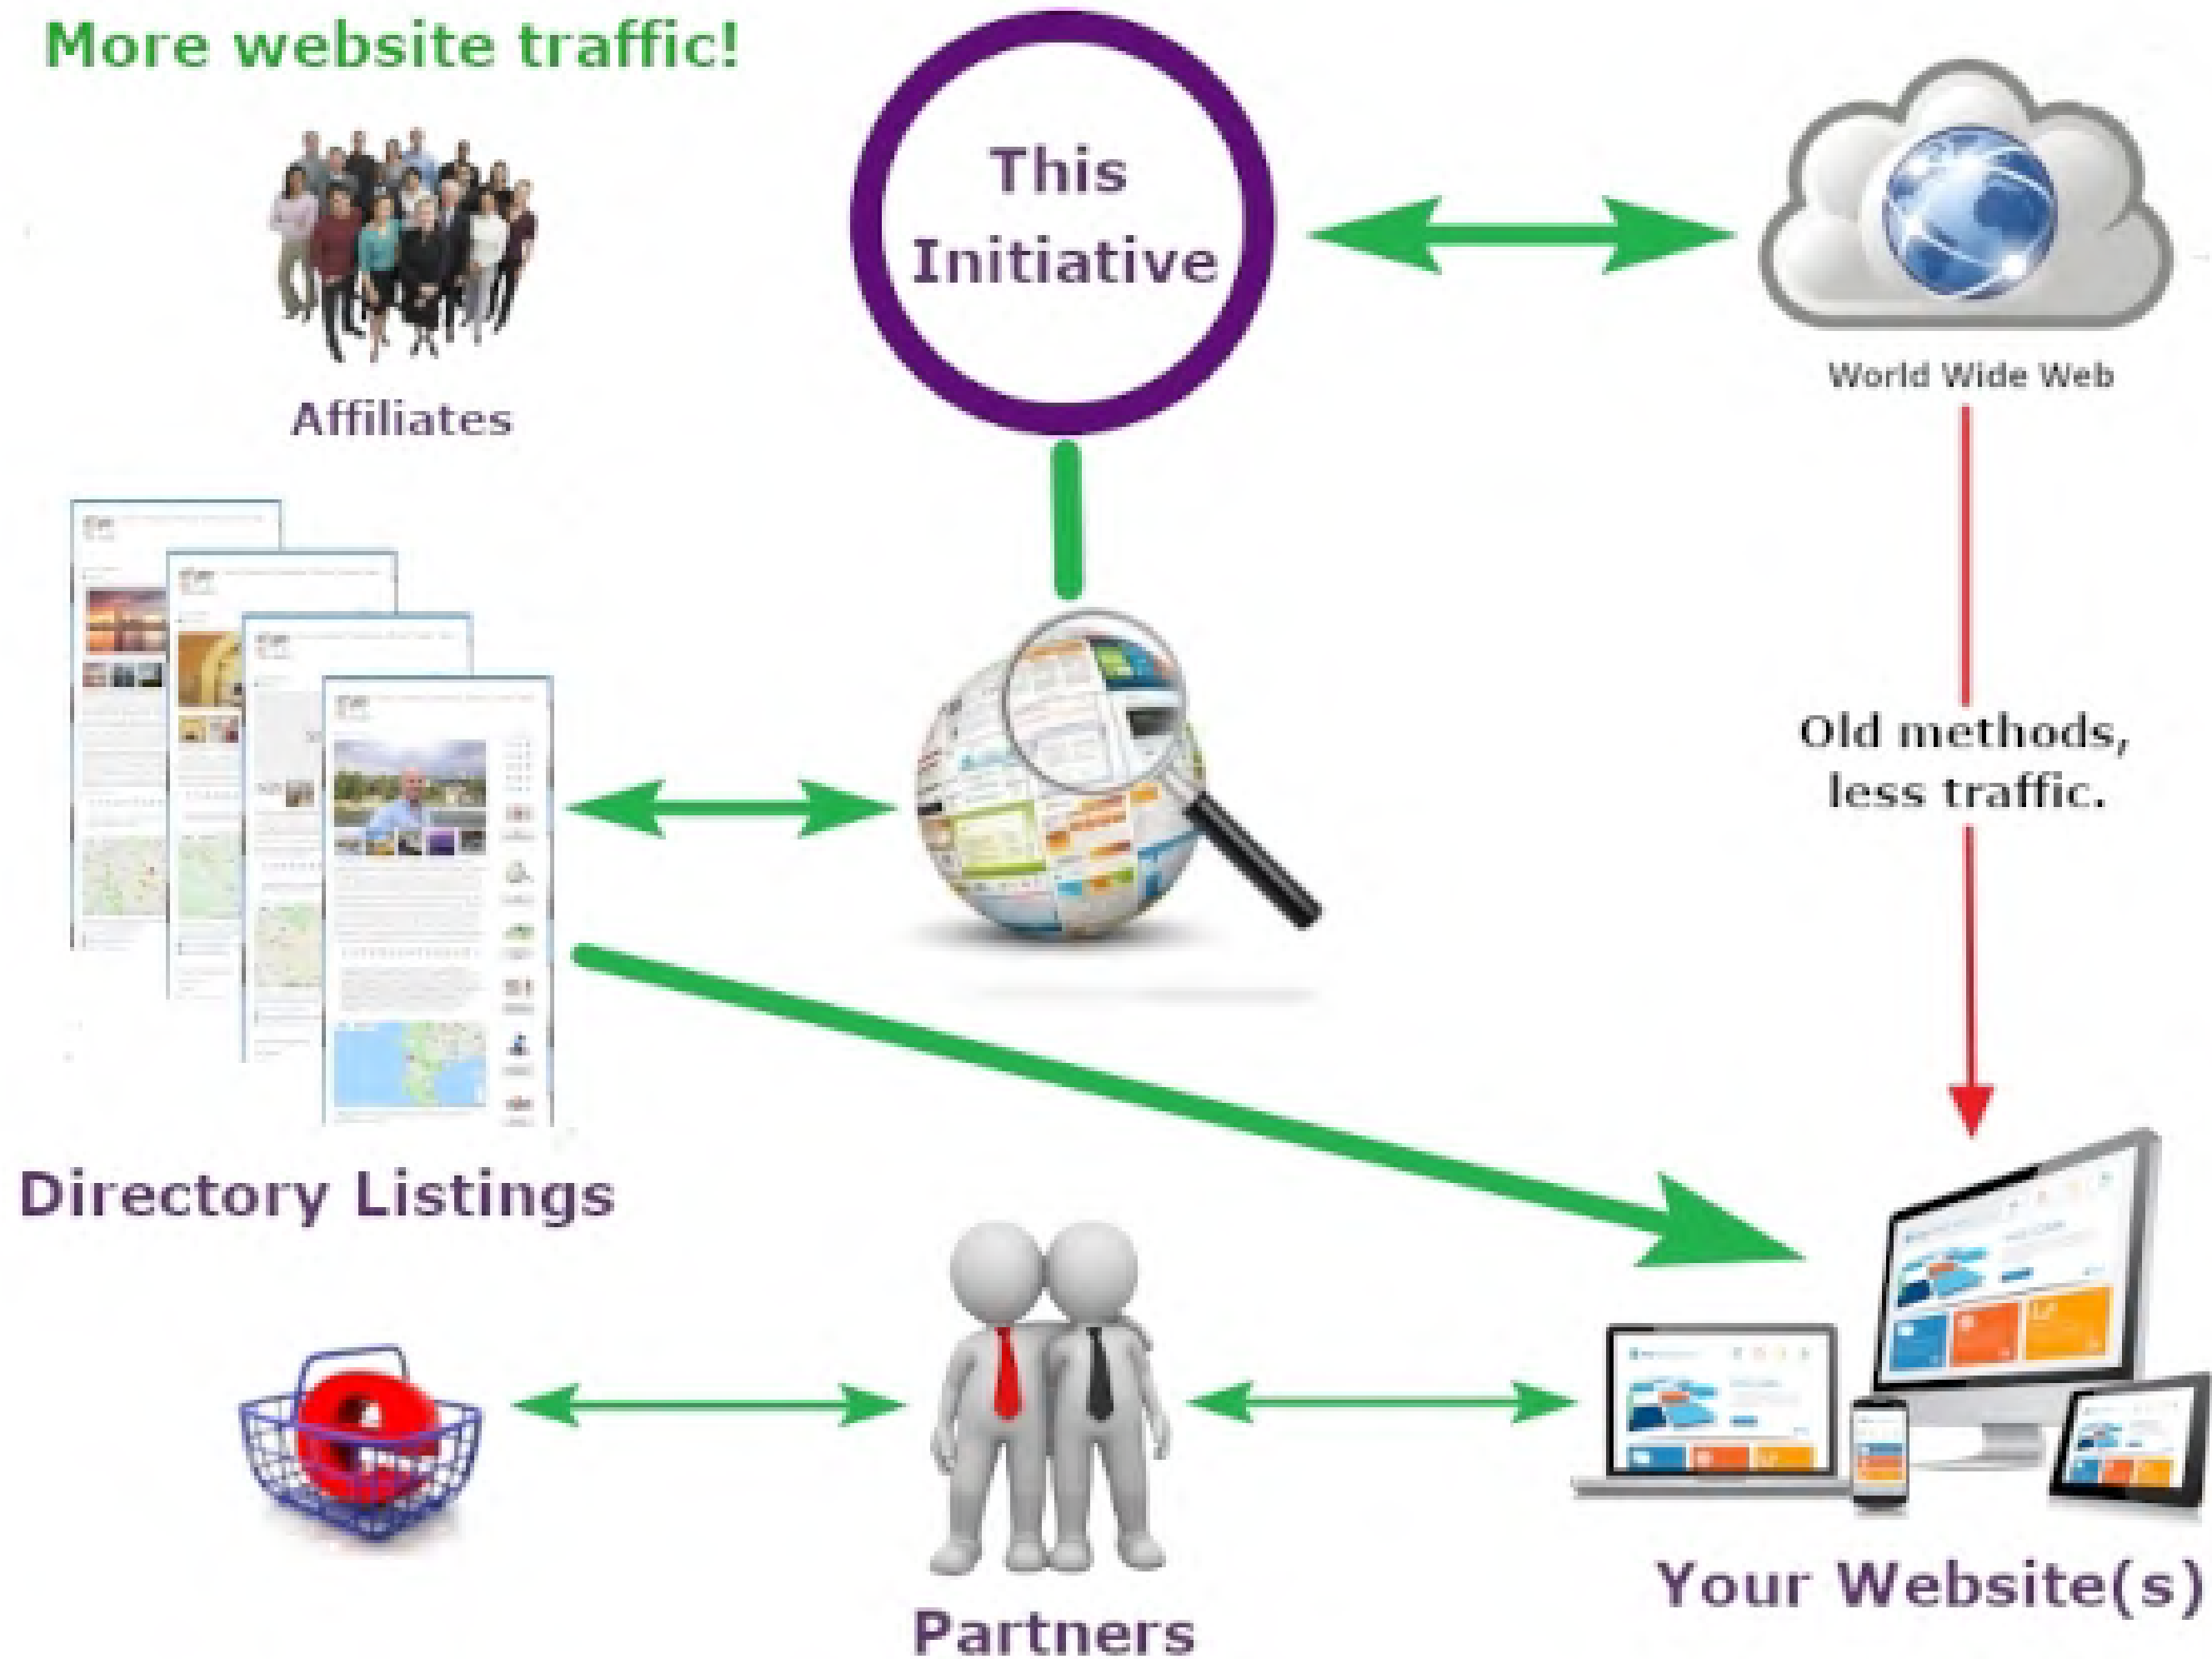

The revenue share business model can be applied to any product and service. We gladly share our experience with our members and provide various tools and resources to run your own affiliate program. These have been tried and tested, so that you don't have to. Make the most of your membership. Avoid wasting time and money, experimenting. We stay on the cutting edge of technology, and pass on the expertise.

More traffic to your website.

Every business owner desires a deluge of visitors to their website. The reality is that you can build it, but they won't come, unless a great deal of marketing is done. One of the most effective ways to entice eyeballs is to create many landing pages. These act like small tributaries to a big river. With the Business Pack comes the ability to easily create up to 350 directory landing pages. We then search engine optimize them for you.

More website traffic!

Create additional income streams.

Apart from your own products and services, this initiative can be used to add to your bottom line. It does not compete with what you do. Also, the 350 directly landing pages can be for other affiliate programs that you promote. Everything ultimately drives traffic to your website. This cross-promotion gives you multiple chances to drive users towards the checkout. Thinking horizontal and vertically regarding revenue, will produce dividends.

35% revenue share from this initiative.

In accordance with our revenue share business model, members who subscribe to the Business Pack option, receive 35% commission from referrals. Our platform tracks clicks in real-time, and members/affiliates have easy access to their statistics. Including all our tools and resources into your business is highly encouraged. If you don't have a business, the Business Pack will get you started quickly. Get your share of our revenue!

Align your business with worthy causes.

The power of association will have a positive impact on your bottom line. Promoting worthy causes as part of your social responsibility efforts, can only mean more sales. Everyone likes to see the less fortunate get a lift, and this motivates customers to support your business. Considering you are passionate about what you sell, this initiative is an extension of the maxim, "Do what you love, and the money will flow naturally!"
